RESIDENTS GEAR UP TO FIGHT 'GREAT EASTERN PARK' PLAN

RESIDENTS in Didcot and East Hagbourne have joined forces to campaign against plans for a 'Great Eastern Park' housing development to the south-east of the town.

Developer Grainger PLC wants to build an estate of 170 houses to the east of New Road, which links Didcot and East Hagbourne.

The campaigners have formed a protest group, Mind the Green Gap, to object to the plans, which could also include another development at Shortland's Farm

By Loughlan Campbell

loughlan@taylornewspapers.co.uk

immediately to the south of Grainger's application site.

Together, the two developments could see East Hagbourne double in size if the plans are given planning permission by South Oxfordshire District Council (SODC).

The protest group's chairman, Andy Barmer, said: "This area was previously deemed not suitable for housing in SODC's Core Strategy in 2012. We feel our community has been given a lack of respect in terms of how these proposals have been carried out.

"We want SODC to issue a statement to reassure residents that there is zero chance of a 'Great Eastern Park' being created on precious farmland."

Government culture minister Ed Vaizey, MP for Wantage and Didcot, met about 60 members of the group at the site in New Road last Friday and pledged his support to their cause.

He said: "I want to work with these people to put the argument to the council over these plans.

"The key is to maintain these villages outside of Didcot so they can keep their character as they are beautiful areas and we want to keep them like that.

"I cannot wave a magic wand but I will do my best to get their views heard."

Grainger, which owns the site in New Road, submitted a 'screening opinion' ahead of a planning application for the site in New Road on July 24.

The company had previously held a consultation with East Hagbourne residents at the village's sports pavilion last month.

Dorset-based Nurton Developments registered its interest in developing the Shortland's Farm site for housing with SODC last year.

An agent acting for Nurton, JCG Land & Property, has twice written to residents in New Road, making an offer to buy their properties.

The protest group believes Nurton intends to demolish the houses to create an access point between New Road and the proposed Grainger housing estate.

John Beresford, development director at Grainger, said: "We are currently assessing the need for homes.

"We are sensitive to the fact that new homes can polarise opinion."

Mr Beresford said Grainger had received a good representative sample of those who'd expressed support for the proposed homes.

Bridge named in UK's top six for playing Pooh Sticks

OXFORDSHIRE'S Pooh Sticks fanatics are celebrating after a county bridge was named as one of the nation's top six for playing the children's game featured in author AA Milne's 'Winnie the Pooh' books.

Day's Lock, near Little Wittenham, was rated as the sixth best 'poohsticks-perfect' bridge by VisitEngland last week.

The announcement came as research also revealed the formula for the perfectly shaped pooh stick.

Rebecca Lowe, of VisitEngland, said: "Our recommendations of top Pooh Sticks bridges are just some of the great spots to enjoy the game across the country, and will hopefully encourage families to get out and engage in some friendly competition over the Bank Holiday weekend."

The World Pooh Sticks Championships was held at Day's Lock from its inception in 1984 until 2014. This year, however, after becoming increasingly popular, the contest was moved to a new venue at a bridge near Cogges Manor Farm Museum, Witney, which played host to its first event in June.

Lesley Adams, of Rotary Club of Oxford Spires which runs the event, said: "It's a lovely location in Little Wittenham but it got too popular so we started looking for a more suitable location."

"Hopefully, we'll see the new bridge at Langel Common on the list very soon."

The director of engineering and education at the Royal Academy of Engineering in London, Dr Rhys Morgan this week revealed his formula for the perfect pooh stick.

Dr Morgan's formula is PP (Perfect Poohstick) = A x p x Cd - taking into account cross sectional area, density, buoyancy and the 'drag coefficient'.

In layman's terms, the perfect pooh stick is tubby and long, fairly heavy (but not so heavy it will sink to the bottom of the river), with quite a lot of bark to catch the flow of the river like paddles.

A book called 'The Poohsticks Handbook: A Poohstickopedia' was released last month.

Author Mark Evans said: "It's full of hints, tips and general poohstick advice as well as the history of the game and, most importantly, the rules."

Inmate sought after absconding from jail

A MAN serving a 27-year jail sentence has absconded from HMP Springhill at Grendon Underwood, near Bicester. John Rooney, 47, left the open prison at 6.30am on Tuesday, getting a lift into Bicester before being spotted on a bus heading from the town to Oxford at 7.05am.

The police said they believed there were substantial grounds for believing he posed a risk of harm to the public.

Members of the public are advised not to approach him, but to call 999 immediately.

Rooney is white, 5ft 8ins tall, slim, with brown hair and has tattoos on his left arm, left wrist, hand and fingers, as well as his right hand and fingers, and also a scar on his right hand.

He also has tattoos on his face, but police said these might not be clearly visible.

Rooney left the prison wearing a blue top, blue jeans and was carrying a bag.

Detective Inspector Joe Banfield said: "Thames Valley Police is working closely with the prison service to try and locate Rooney."

He urged anyone with information about his whereabouts to call police on 101.

Man, 33, faces child sex exploitation charges

AN Oxford man has been charged with child sexual exploitation offences as part of Operation Spur.

Salik Miah, 33 of Ferry Hinksey Road, Oxford, was arrested on Monday and was charged on Tuesday.

He was charged with one count of conspiracy to rape a girl, one count of rape of a girl, one count of arranging or facilitating the sexual exploitation of a child aged 13 to 17 and one count of arranging or facilitating the travel of another person with a view to exploitation. The offences are said to have occurred between January 3, 2005, and March 27, 2007.

Miah appeared at Oxford Magistrates' Court on Tuesday and is set to appear at Oxford Crown Court on September 18.

A 37-year-old man from Oxford was also arrested on Monday in connection with child sexual exploitation offences. He has been released on police bail until October 20.

The arrest was also made as part of Operation Spur, an investigation into historic child sexual exploitation in Oxford.

Concern aired over latest idea for West Way redevelopment

Society's video ploy to invite star Taylor

SIR Ian McKellen, Morgan Freeman and Malala Yousafzai are amongst those appearing to perform US mega star Taylor Swift's hit song 'Shake It Off' in a video released by Oxford Union debating society.

It is using the film in a bid to entice singer and American sweetheart Taylor (pictured) to join its long list of celebrity speakers.

The mash-up re-works sections of speeches made at the Oxford Union by famous faces set to Taylor's 2014 hit.

Oxford Union president, Charlie Vaughan, said: "To give some background on the video, we started out trying to think of a way to showcase to the incoming group of students to the University of Oxford some of the speakers we have hosted at the Oxford Union."

"When we realised a couple of days into editing that we were actually starting to put something pretty good together, we agreed that this would be quite an original way to invite Taylor herself."

Amongst the international figures and celebrities who have spoken at the world famous debating society are former British Prime Ministers Winston Churchill and Margaret Thatcher, pop star Michael Jackson and TV show host Jerry Springer.

After the video was released online last Wednesday, the Union tweeted Taylor, saying: "@taylorswift13 Fancy joining us in Oxford? #shakeitoff."

Mr Vaughan added: "We have no idea whether she will even see it, but the process of celebrating Taylor's music through our past speakers was fun nonetheless."

She is yet to respond to the video.

CAMPAIGNERS have aired concern at the latest vision for the redevelopment of Botley's West Way shopping centre.

The scheme has been revealed as a Supplementary Planning Document (SPD) which was called for by the Vale of White Horse District Council last month.

Design firm BDP produced the document on behalf of the council to be used to help decide any future plans for the area. It is currently open for public consultation until September 25.

The SPD states that a range of retail units, business and office space, residential housing, student accommodation, a care home, a nursery, a library and potentially a cinema could be built on the site as part of its development.

Chris Church, of West Way Community Concern said: "As the SPD stands, it does not provide adequate guidance to ensure that the development is of the highest quality."

"We've seen that some people are not keen on the idea of bringing a large number of student flats to that area and we want to see a clearer guidance on the limits of the building heights and sizes."

The SPD states that the height of the buildings could reach eight storeys (26.4 metres), whereas the tallest in West Way currently is Westway House at 17 metres.

Developers Mace are working on new plans to develop the shopping centre, having taken over from previous firm Doric. Botley residents previously voted in a survey that their preference for the West Way shopping centre was for smaller, independent shops in the centre rather than bigger retail chain store units.

Chain stores and a cinema were in previous £100m plans to develop the West Way centre, which was turned down by the Vale of White Horse district council in December last year.

The SPD also states that Elm's Parade could be redeveloped as part of any development, but Mace have stated they intend to retain it as part of the redevelopment.

Huw Griffiths, development director at Mace, said: "Mace welcome the publication of the SPD and are in the process of reviewing the content."

"Mace can confirm that it intends to retain Elms Parade as part of its forthcoming redevelopment."

Mace are set to submit a plan to the Vale later this year.

Cllr Mike Murray, cabinet member for planning policy at the Vale, said: "This document will ensure that people can have an influence over how this important part of the Vale will develop."

News Bites

Displays go on

UFFINGTON: The air displays set for the White Horse Show at White Horse Hill over the August Bank Holiday weekend will continue, say the event's organisers.

The flypast of the Avro Vulcan bomber will go ahead as planned on Sunday, August 30, following a decision by The Vulcan to the Sky Trust, which operates the vintage aircraft.

The aircraft is due to be grounded permanently at the end of the year.

There will also be a display by Mark Jeffries, of the Global Stars Aerobatic Team, and the RAF Falcons parachute display team will be dropping in.

Teen attacked

DIDCOT: A 17-year-old boy was taken to hospital after he was headbutted while walking across Cow Lane Bridge with a friend last Thursday.

They were approached by two men and one of them headbutted the victim, who sustained injuries to his face and was taken to Abingdon Community Hospital for treatment.

He has since been discharged and police are appealing for more information on 101.

Kitchen blaze

BICESTER: Firefighters were called to a house fire in Colne Close, Bicester, at 8.26am on Sunday after a female occupant smelt smoke and heard two smoke alarms. The Bicester and Oxford crews put out an oven fire.

Tribute seeks support

AN Oxfordshire flying club building a squadron of replica Second World War Spitfires is urging members of the public to back the idea.

Enstone Flying Club in Banbury Road, Enstone, has completed two of the fighters but wants a further ten to make up Ace Squadron as a tribute to the pilots who flew them in combat.

The leaders of the £4.3 million project are calling on county residents to contribute to the project and gain the chance to fly in one of the aircraft.

By Alexander Ballinger

alex@taylornewspapers.co.uk

Flying club skipper, Paul Fowler, who lives near Enstone, said: "It's a tribute to the pilots and the people that worked on the aeroplane."

"The plan is to make the aircraft much more accessible." The aircraft will be slightly smaller versions of the original aircraft – 80 or 90 per cent of their original size. Mr Fowler, 54, said while a full-scale size replica would cost about £2m to build, the club's smaller versions would be about £250,000 each.

He added: "It's probably the most iconic aeroplane anywhere in the world."

The club's two Spitfires – one an 80 per cent scale replica and the other 90 per cent – have been test flown and Mr Fowler hopes the larger plane will soon be ready for regular flights.

The aircraft are built from kits imported from America, with each one taking 6,000 hours to complete. They are powered by V6 engines built by General Motors rather than the original Rolls Royce Merlin engines.

Anyone contributing to the project will be able to sign a rivet, which will remain in an aircraft.

Shareholders will also be given the chance to fly in the plane as a passenger once they are cleared for take-off, weight limit dependent.

The RAF's deputy commander capability and air member for personnel and capability, air marshal Sir Baz North said: "The ambition to build and fly a squadron of Spitfires as a tribute to the men and women of the Royal Air Force is a unique and very exciting project. It is particularly poignant as 2015 is the 75th anniversary of the Battle of Britain."

Olivia tackles climb in memory of baby sister

AN Oxford schoolgirl on course to become one of the youngest people in the world to reach the summit of Mount Kilimanjaro in Tanzania fell slightly short of her goal.

Dragon School pupil Olivia Maiden, 13, started the five-day climb with her father Dan on August 7 in memory of her baby sister Florence.

But just six hours from the summit the party had to turn back after Olivia suffered altitude sickness.

Olivia said: "It was an experience I will never forget, though up the mountain you do not feel like that. Having to turn round was the hardest decision of the whole trip but I don't regret it as I would've been too exhausted to continue."

The dad and daughter were raising money for Oxford's Helen and Douglas House hospice, which supported one-year-old Florence before her death on November 28, 2008.

Despite Olivia not reaching the summit, the duo still raised a total of £6,843 for the charity.

Olivia added: "Having my dad there helped me and the motivation thinking of my sister and what I'm doing to help the others that have to suffer what my sister did. This helped me get to where I did."

"Because I hadn't eaten a hot meal in about two days, I felt dizzy and I had no energy to complete the summit attempt so we had to decide to turn around."

Olivia remains determined to reach the summit one day, and said she would like to lead a group to the top with the Duke of Edinburgh Award scheme.

Doggy-paddle effort to collar charity cash

• The Thames Doggy team passes through Abingdon (via @ThamesDoggy)

AN Oxford man recruited a 10-strong team of friends to doggy paddle 155 miles down the Thames day and night to raise money for charity.

Hamish Reid, 35, of Jericho, the team's 'pack leader', set off with them from St John's Lock in Lechlade, Gloucestershire, at 9am on Saturday and travelled through Oxfordshire with the aim of reaching London's Tower Bridge today.

The team is hoping to raise £50,000 for the UK Stem Cell Foundation after Hamish's childhood friend, James Taylor, broke his neck diving under a wave and suffering permanent paralysis in 2005. James and Hamish are raising awareness for the foundation and hope that their event will inspire people to raise funds for it.

After reaching Windsor earlier this week, Hamish told the Guardian: "The idea came to me that it would be quite an interesting swim if you were to swim the Thames whilst doing a doggy paddle. It's a tricky skill to master and feels a bit like running with someone holding your trousers back."

The team is tackling the challenge in two groups of five, with one person doing the doggy paddle, with three people in a canoe pulling a giant inflatable dog called Stem, and another on a paddle board.

Hamish said the main difficulty the group had faced in pulling Stem along the river was the wind.

"The wind has been our enemy as it makes towing Stem that much harder," he said.

"However, we've really had a fun time. I was pretty confident we could achieve our goal and the team has been fantastic going through the day and night."

James said of the challenge: "The research funded by the foundation has the potential to cure currently incurable conditions, however in order to turn research into real treatments the charity needs support from challenges like this."

The team has to date raised just under £13,000.

For more information about the team's challenge, or to donate, visit the website thamesdoggy.com

Hospital work starts

BUILDING work has started on a new hospital for animals at Island Farm Donkey Sanctuary in Brightwell-cum-Sotwell.

The sanctuary cares for about 130 donkeys at the site and the development will provide it with a facility for vets to carry out medical procedures.

The construction will be taking place in two phases, with phase one beginning this week. It will see the construction of the three-room facility and is expected to last five to six weeks.

The second phase will see two holding pens furnished and equipment brought in for treatment and hygiene areas.

Stuart McLaren, the sanctuary administrator, said: "It will likely take five or six weeks to carry out phase one which we raised the funds for through stalls at various events."

"We are fundraising for the second phase and hope to have enough to begin kitting it out once the buildings constructed."

Up to now, the medical procedures have been carried out in a stable that had to be cleaned out or the donkeys transferred to a vet's, risking further injury.

Mum of epileptic boy stages charity festival

AN OXFORD woman has organised a music festival to raise money for her epileptic son and an Oxfordshire charity.

Earlier this year, Jade Hudson's three-year-old son Leo was diagnosed with a severe form of epilepsy which means he can suffer up to 50 seizures a day.

Ms Hudson, 27, began raising money for her son and has decided to help Wantage epilepsy charity SUDEP Action.

She said: "I was doing so well fundraising on my own at home so I thought I should really do an event. So many people have helped me and I wanted to be able to help someone else."

Ms Hudson, who lives in Marston, began raising money online in June with hopes of buying Leo life-saving technology such as a Smart Watch, which alerts family members or carers when the wearer suffers a seizure. Since then, almost £4,000 has been raised for Leo by 245 donors.

By Alexander Ballinger
alex@taylornewspapers.co.uk

Ms Hudson, who works as a healthcare assistant, said: "Everything related to what Leo needs is expensive. I wanted to get him anti-suffocation pillows and they're £70 each.

"The best thing I've bought is the cameras. They're like baby monitors and allow me to keep an eye on him when I'm not in the room."

Leo suffered his first seizure in May and was diagnosed with Doose Syndrome — a severe form of epilepsy — shortly afterwards.

Ms Hudson has organised Oxfest at The Red Lion pub in Oxford Road, Old Marston, starting at 2pm on Saturday. It will include performances from five local bands. It will also feature an auction of items donated by local companies including signed Oxford United memorabilia, Romain Grosjean F1 gear and a Kimi Raikkonen shirt.

SUDEP Action is fundraising for research into a device that monitors breathing in epilepsy sufferers while they sleep.

The charity's acting chief executive, Karen Osland, said: "We are grateful to Jade for organising a fundraising event."

Seriously hurt

CHIPPING NORTON: A man had to be treated for a serious head injury after an incident in Goddards Lane at about 8am on Sunday.

Police are trying to establish the circumstances surrounding the incident after receiving reports of the man lying in the road. The man, in his 50s, was taken to John Radcliffe Hospital, Oxford.

Anyone who saw the man in Goddards Lane or saw any vehicles or people acting out of the ordinary should call 101.

Dog rescued after being found with muzzle tied

AN abandoned dog whose muzzle was tied up so tightly that she bled was rescued from near Faringdon on August 15.

The young female animal, who has been renamed Clover (pictured) and is thought to be a greyhound cross, was found near Puddleduck Lane, Great Coxwell, by residents who called the RSPCA.

RSPCA inspector Nikki Denham said: "I was horrified at what I saw when I arrived. She was extremely subdued and I could see that the tape was tied around her muzzle.

"Her mouth was swollen, bruised and bloody. She couldn't drink, pant or eat which is extremely dangerous for a dog, particularly in hot weather."

Clover was taken to a vet and is now recovering.

Ms Denham said: "I dread to think what might have happened to her had she not been found. It is heart-breaking to see a dog in distress like this."

The tape is believed to have been around the dog's muzzle for 48 hours. She also had a inch-long wound on her leg that was so deep it required veterinary stapling.

Anyone with information is asked to call 03001238018.

Recycling boost

OXON: Residents in Vale of White Horse and South Oxfordshire will be able to recycle small electrical items by putting them out with their grey bins.

The disused equipment will be taken to a specialist site in Newbury by the district councils for sorting and processing.

Clothes will also be collected when left in a tied carrier bag next to the bin on a normal collection day.

The scheme will start in South Oxfordshire on September 7 and the Vale on October 5.

Woman punched

DIDCOT: Police have released an e-fit after a man punched a woman in the face on the corner of Hagbourne Road in Didcot last Wednesday.

The 24-year-old victim was approached by the man who asked for a cigarette and then became aggressive and attempted to steal her handbag when she said she did not smoke.

The man then punched the victim, causing swelling and redness to her cheek and a black eye. The police would like to speak to the man in the e-fit and ask the public to call 101 if they have any information.

Former binman brings sci-fi tale to the screen as his debut film effort

By Loughlan Campbell

loughlan@taylornewspapers.co.uk

A WALLINGFORD filmmaker and former binman is set to premiere his debut film at the town's Corn Exchange next month.

Richard Oakes, 31, of Norries Drive, Wallingford, has produced the 20-minute short, a sci-fi spectacular called 'Exit Plan', four years after starting production company Dark Fable Media.

The filmmaker headed to his hometown of Cardigan, West Wales, where he and friend Mark Brugere shot the film with a couple of friends and extras over four days.

Richard told the Oxfordshire Guardian he had 'always wanted' to get into film but was worried about his lack of qualifications.

He said: "I've always wanted to do something creative and I've always had a passion for cinema."

"I would get quite down during my days as binman but I decided to quit, buy the equipment and just take the plunge."

Richard formed Wallingford-based Dark Fable Media and started shooting music videos for heavy metal bands such as Serj Tankian (of System of a Down) and Devin Townsend.

But last October, Richard decided to bring his idea for a sci-fi film to fruition.

The story of 'Exit Plan' is about a futuristic wasteland in which robots have taken over all the world's jobs, and the world has become divided between the rich and the poor.

The plot revolves around a man trying to escape the earth after a meteorite sends the moon on a crash course with the earth.

Richard said of the shoot: "It was a great experience for me. At times it was a bit stressful but I'm very happy with the end product and I'm so glad I gave it a shot."

Following the film's premiere next month, Richard is hopeful of it being shown at a number of film festivals around the world.

He has entered 'Exit Plan' in 25 different festivals, with the film already winning the audience choice award and best score title at the online Monthly Film Festival awards for July.

The film has already been accepted for the I Filmmaker International Film Festival in Marbella, Spain, in December.

Once the film has been premiered, Richard hopes to show it to further UK audiences before moving on to his next project.

He added: "I would love to make more. I've got so many ideas in my head that I'd love to put on the screen, but let's just see how this one works out first."

The film is due to premiere at the Corn Exchange in Market Place on September 26.

Rhino birth takes keepers by surprise at Burford park

COTSWOLD Wildlife Park has lots to celebrate after the arrival of its second baby rhino this year.

Nancy, a white rhino, gave birth to a calf earlier than expected just five months after another white rhino Ruby gave birth to the Burford park's first male rhino.

The latest arrival will join sister Astrid who was born in 2013 to Nancy and Monty.

Park managing director, Reggie Heyworth, said: "You wait 40 years, then it seems like three come along at once. This is such a happy event for the park, and I have to pinch myself when I see six rhinos on the lawn."

Keepers knew Nancy was pregnant but the birth of the male calf at about 7pm last Tuesday took them by surprise. He is yet to be named.

Rhino births are extremely rare in captivity, with only 14 white rhinos being born in European zoos in the last 12 months. The park has now had two of the three recorded UK births.

The park was voted the UK's fourth best zoo by users of travel website TripAdvisor.

It was also rated the park the 12th best zoo in Europe.

Pupils delighted as they gain record GCSE results

JUST a week after Oxfordshire County Council announced an improvement in A-levels across the county, 15- and 16-year-old pupils went through all the tears and triumphs of opening their GCSE results.

About 6,200 young people at secondary schools celebrated record-breaking results last Thursday and started preparing for college and sixth form to study for their A-levels or International Baccalaureate.

Henry Box School in Church Green, Witney, celebrated its third successive year of GCSE success with 65 per cent of its pupils achieving five or more A* to C grades, equal to last year's record results.

Headteacher of Henry Box, Wendy Hemmingsley, said: "I'm delighted with these results which are a testament to the excellent teaching and pastoral support of our staff."

Independent school Abingdon School in Park Road, Abingdon, celebrated success with 60 per cent of its passes hitting the A* level.

Magnus Gregory, 16, of Pyrton, near Watlington, was celebrating more than just his ten A*

GCSEs after having recently becoming the marathon kayak junior European champion in Slovenia.

Magnus said: "I wasn't expecting this. I didn't do that well in my mocks. I'm probably most pleased with English language because I got a C in my mocks and I got an A* in the exam."

Girls at Headington School performed outstandingly with a school record of 56.7 per cent of all grades scoring A*s, and 19 of the 116 girls sitting the exams scored ten or more A*s.

Headmistress Caroline Jordan said: "We are absolutely delighted by this year's GCSE results. The girls have worked so hard and it has really paid off."

Didcot Girls' School pupils were also celebrating great results, with 72 per cent of them achieving five or more A*-C grades.

Binuka Guring, 16, of Didcot, who gained six A*s, said: "It wasn't as bad as I thought it was going to be but when I got here I was like 'Just get it out the way' and it all turned out OK!"

Jemma Crowther, 16, of Abingdon, was 'extremely nervous' about collecting her results, but found she had achieved three A*s and four A's.

She said: "I didn't have breakfast I was so nervous about it. I tried to handle it like a normal day in order to get through it but now I'm over the moon with my results and I've got to ring my parents to tell them all about it."

Headteacher Rachael Warwick said: "We've had another fantastic year and our girls put in so much work here. We are so proud of them all."

Pupils at The Oxford Academy in Littlemore achieved the school's best ever results, with 58 per cent gaining five A*-C grades.

County council's cabinet member for children, education and families, Melinda Tilley, said: "I would like to congratulate our young people on their GCSE results this year."

Cloudy2Clear Windows – Service With A Smile!

ADVERTISEMENT

It's been a crazy few months for Cloudy2Clear Windows. The company which specialises in repairing windows which are steamed up, broken or damaged by replacing the panes – not the frames has grown rapidly as homeowners take advantage of their services.

Managing Director James Miller feels that it's all about service. 'Our product is simple. If your double glazing is misted up we can replace the glass at a fraction of the cost of a new window, in any type of frame, and with a new 10 year guarantee. But it's not just about saving people money, although that obviously helps.

Many tradespeople have struggled since last year and I honestly feel that during the good times a minority perhaps didn't focus on customer care as much as they should have done. We make sure we turn up when we say we will, do the job the customer requires and leave their house as clean as a whistle. I often get comments back from customers on how they really didn't expect that sort of service which, in a way, is very sad for the service industry as a whole.

Cloudy2Clear service Oxfordshire from their local depots and James is finding that his approach is a major factor in his success. 'The truth is that it's not just the personal satisfaction that I get from doing a good job but also it makes good business sense. I get a huge amount of business from friends and family of people I've done work for, which just goes to show how much a little bit of effort is appreciated.' So if your windows are steamed up, broken or damaged give James a call for a free quotation on 0800 61 21 118 and he'll be happy to help!

Experts voice concern over 1,200-home Blenheim plan

A NATIONAL committee that acts as an official advisor to World Heritage Site chiefs has said it could not support a planned 1,200-home development near Blenheim Palace, Woodstock.

A letter sent from Peter Marsden, the chair of the international council on monuments and sites UK (ICOMOS-UK), to Cherwell District Council said

By Alexander Ballinger
alex@taylornewspapers.co.uk

the development would overpower Woodstock and harm the World Heritage Site (WHS).

ICOMOS-UK acts as the official advisor to the United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organisation (UNESCO), which selects World Heritage Sites such as Blenheim Palace.

The letter from Mr Marsden to Cherwell's development control team leader for planning, said: "ICOMOS-UK cannot support the revised application. It remains our view that the town of Woodstock forms a key element in the setting of the WHS. "We continue to believe that the development would physically overpower the existing settlement."

The outline planning application for the 1,200 homes on land south of Perdiswell Farm on Shipton Road was submitted to both Cherwell and West Oxfordshire district councils last year.

John Bleakely, a Woodstock resident, said: "It's an over-development of the town that is not sustainable. A 1,200-house estate at Blenheim does not constitute a World Heritage Site."

Town councillor, Sharon Parnes, said of the letter: "It assesses a lot of the issues that were perceived by members of the public already. It's very encouraging to see an expert reach the same conclusions."

The Oxfordshire Guardian reported last week that Cherwell council officers believed there was a planning objection to the application.

An internal memo from the council's head of strategic planning said the objection was based on the development not according with the Local Plans of Cherwell or West Oxfordshire.

A spokesman for developers Pye Homes and the Blenheim Estate, Daniel Hayman, said: "We are reviewing the comments that have been made as part of the consultation from ICOMOS and will look at some of the specific points they have raised."

"The development has the potential to secure the future of the World Heritage Site well into the future and it is imperative that it does so in a sympathetic and non-detrimental way."

• Local residents opposing the Woodstock development have launched an online petition.

Firefighters quell a spate of arsons

OXFORD was hit by six arson incidents in the space of just an hour-and-a-half last Wednesday.

Four of the arsons occurred in the Cowley Road area, with the other two incidents happening in Headington.

No one was injured in any of the incidents.

A wheelie bin was set alight in Cowley Road at about 2.50am before a motorcycle parked in Charles Street was set alight, causing damage to a nearby car at about 3.30am.

Firefighters attended the scene and extinguished the fire.

At about the same time, a skip in Hurst Street was set alight. The fire was put out by the fire service.

Thames Valley Police officers also came across a bin in Leopold Street that was smouldering at 3.25am.

In the Headington area, a bin was set alight at 3.25am in Demesne Furze, which was subsequently extinguished by the fire service.

Several small recycling bins at the junction of Old Road with Valentia Road were also set alight at about 4.15am, with firefighters attending and extinguishing the blazes.

Investigating officer, Det Con Charlotte Dunford, said: "The police are particularly interested to speak to a man who was in the area of Hurst Street at around 3.30am."

"This man is not a suspect and informed the fire brigade about the incident. I would like this man to come forward and speak to police. He is a white man, around 25, with short brown hair and stubble." Call 101 with information.

Woman treated

CARTERTON: A woman was treated for smoke inhalation following a fire at a ground-floor flat in Heather Close.

Oxfordshire County Council Fire and Rescue Service was called to the fire at about 9am last Thursday after neighbours heard a smoke alarm.

Fire crews from Witney Fire Station were confronted with smoke coming from the flat when they arrived.

The woman was treated at the scene by South Central Ambulance Service.

News Bites

Man arrested

DIDCOT: A 31-year-old man was arrested on suspicion of affray after two men were seen having an altercation in the street during which one of them produced a knife.

The incident happened at The Croft in Didcot last Wednesday at approximately 5.10pm.

The man has been released on bail until September 21.

Anyone with any information about the incident should call police on 101.

Support sought

OXFORD: Campaigners for the reopening of Temple Cowley swimming pool are calling for more support from the public.

The Save Temple Cowley Pool Campaign is asking for donations to help it oppose any planning applications submitted for the site in Temple Road.

For more information, visit: www.savetpcic.org.

Rejection urged

SHRIVENHAM: Didcot and Wantage MP Ed Vaizey has urged Vale of White Horse District Council to reject a plan by Linden Homes for a 136-home estate off Faringdon Road.

Culture minister Mr Vaizey said: "I very much hope that the district council will heed my constituents' well-founded concerns."

Seven-year jail term for GBH attack on woman

By Loughlan Campbell

loughlan@taylornewspapers.co.uk

A MAN was jailed for seven years after being convicted of causing grievous bodily harm to his former girlfriend in a two-hour attack.

Dewayne Mason, 38, of Humfrey

• Dewayne Mason, 38

Road, Oxford, was found guilty unanimously by a jury on August 14 following a four-day trial at Oxford Crown Court.

He was sentenced on the same day to seven years' imprisonment.

Mason arrived at his victim's house in Warren Crescent, Headington, in the early hours of February 15 this year and attacked her after she allowed him into the property.

The 34-year-old victim was subject to punching, kneeing and headbutting during the assault and sustained a broken rib, punctured lung, multiple bruising and cuts to her lip and eyebrow.

Mason claimed to have been acting in self-defence, saying that his victim had attacked him with a hammer.

Senior investigating officer, Det Insp Larry Johnson, of Oxfordshire's Protecting Vulnerable People Unit, said: "This is an excellent outcome, particularly for the victim who sustained a horrific two-hour attack at the hands of Mason."

"The victim has shown immense bravery throughout our investigation and to allow the photos of her injuries to be published which highlight the brutality of the attack she suffered."

Mason had originally entered a plea of not guilty, causing the victim to endure a trial and give evidence in court.

Det Insp Johnson said this was 'disappointing' as the victim had to endure 'some very intrusive questioning' by Mason's defence team.

The police officer added that the sentence was a 'reflection of the seriousness and gravity of the

• The horrific injuries sustained by Dewayne Mason's victim offence' that was committed.

He said: "I am very pleased that the jury was able to reach a unanimous decision and was not swayed by Mason's defence."

"The victim will now be able to move on with her life in the comfort that Mason will be in prison for some years to come."

Det Insp Johnson also thanked the officers and staff who worked on the investigation, as well as the Crown Prosecution Service for securing the conviction.

The police released the pictures of the victim last Friday after she gave her consent.

District council sees increase in complaints

COMPLAINTS against South Oxfordshire District Council (SODC) have more than doubled over the last year.

Figures published by the Local Government Ombudsmen showed that complaints against SODC had increased from seven between 2013 and 2014 to 23 between 2014 and 2015.

Oxfordshire County Council received the most complaints in Oxfordshire, with 53.

It is the role of the the Local Government Ombudsman to independently investigate complaints against councils.

The other local authorities in Oxfordshire received a similar amount of complaints in both years.

The biggest increase in complaints against SODC were about housing - nine were received by the ombudsman this year, up from one in the previous year.

SODC spokesman, Natalie Ellis, said: "Although the number of complaints appears to have increased, only three resulted in the Local Government Ombudsman making a formal enquiry.

"The other complaints were either not pursued by the complainant, referred back to us because a complaint had not been made through our complaints procedure, or the LGO didn't need us to make a formal response."

However, complaints against Oxfordshire's councils are significantly lower than other authorities.

Between April 2014 and March 2015, Birmingham City Council received the most complaints with 578.

The ombudsman received 16 complaints about Vale of White Horse District Council this year - up slightly from 13.

A total of 11 complaints were made against West Oxfordshire District Council - down from 13 the year before.

Oxford City Council complaints increased from 30 to 32.

BRIDELICIOUS BOUTIQUE

As a child, Heather Churchman was never able to pass a church wedding without stopping with her mum to catch a glimpse of the bride. "Brides are special – a woman on her big day in the perfect dress gives out an inner glow," says Heather, owner of Wallingford's Bridelicious Boutique. "Every day I do this job, the passion never fades." Opened in 2011, the Bridelicious team have recently been nominated for the national Guides for Brides customer service award. This accolade is well earned thanks to the team's one-to-one, free, private consultations for brides-to-be. Heather, who has been married for 26 years and is mum to three boys ("so I'll never be mother of the bride!") says the shop is a female-friendly affair ("what happens in the shop stays in the shop!"). Arrange a visit to discuss which of the Oxfordshire exclusive designer gowns – ranging from £500 to £2,000 and including Eternity Brides, Art Couture, Rembo Styling, House of Nicholas and Impression – is perfect for you.

Prepare for your marriage, not just the wedding day

They say that love is blind, but it makes much more sense to go into marriage with your eyes open. When did you last talk about you as a couple? Are you taking the 'happily ever after' part for granted and getting caught up in the excitement of the wedding day?

Marriage Care, a national charity with over 65 years of experience helping couples, knows that enduring relationships need nurturing and cultivating.

A Marriage Preparation workshop looks at building and maintaining happy relationships, avoiding the pitfalls and supporting you to build the best possible future together. During the day you are encouraged to consider things that will nurture a lifelong relationship and understand how relationships grow when important issues are dealt with in a constructive and loving way.

Some couples prefer a more individual approach called FOCCUS. A trained facilitator works with you as a couple to explore how your relationship works, its strengths and potential issues, in a supportive and confidential environment.

Most people plan for the big things in life and getting married is no different. Over 2,000 couples have done this in Oxford over the past 20 years, with overwhelmingly positive feedback, why not check it out for yourself?

Call us on 0800 389 3801 (01159 934 255 mobile rate), email oxford.centre@marriagecare.org or visit our website at www.marriagecare.org.uk to book a course.

Delight at surprise arrival of second Rhino calf in one year

ON Tuesday 18th August, at around 7pm, Cotswold Wildlife Park had a rather unexpected arrival. White Rhino Nancy gave birth to her second calf. Keepers knew Nancy was pregnant, but the actual birth came as a bit of a surprise and a little earlier than expected.

Births in captivity are considered extremely rare, with only fourteen White Rhinos being born in European zoos in the last twelve months. Cotswold Wildlife Park was responsible for two out of the three recorded UK births. The new addition is the sixth member to join the 'crash' (the collective noun for a group of Rhinos).

Curator Jamie Craig commented: "After almost forty years of desperately trying to breed from our old group of Rhinos with no success, we are delighted to now have had three calves since 2013. The newest member of the crash was somewhat more of a surprise than we'd like, but at present, all seems to be going well."

It's been a remarkable few years for the Rhino family. In 2013, first-time parents Monty and Nancy delighted staff and visitors when they produced the first calf in the Park's forty-three year history - a female named Astrid. Two years later, she has been joined by a baby brother, who is yet to be named. To add to the celebrations, earlier this year, another of the Park's breeding females, Ruby, gave birth to a male calf, named Ian.

White Rhinos (Ceratotherium simum ssp. simum) have always been an important species at the Wildlife Park, which was founded by Mr John Heyworth in 1970. His son Reggie Heyworth, Managing Director of Cotswold Wildlife Park, commented: "You wait forty years, then it seems like three come along at once! This is such a happy event for the Park, and I have to pinch myself when I see six rhinos on the lawn."

Females only reproduce every two-and-a-half to five years, so the window of opportunity for successful reproduction is limited. After a gestation period of sixteen to eighteen months, a single calf is born. Nancy is proving, once again, to be an excellent and very protective mother. A newborn calf will stand up within one hour of birth and immediately attempt to suckle, although may be a little unsteady on his feet for the first few days. He will remain under the watchful eye of his mother, suckling from her for approximately one year. Their bond is an intensely strong one and the calf will remain with his mother for at least two years, benefiting from her protection. Females guard their offspring aggressively and are intimidating adversaries if challenged.

Unbelievably, these iconic animals were once the rarest subspecies of any Rhino and were on the verge of extinction in the early 1900s, when it was believed only twenty to fifty animals remained in their native African homeland. Thanks to excellent and sustained protection, they are now the most common of the five Rhino subspecies, although poaching in the last five years has once again escalated to serious levels, driven by demand for rhino horn from the traditional medicine market of China and the Far East.

Visitors can see the new calf daily from 10am to 6pm (last entry at 4.30pm) in the large Rhino paddock and solar powered Rhino House.

WIN tickets to the London Homebuilding & Renovating Show

COINCIDING with the latest report that the South East of the UK has seen the largest rise in self-builders in 2015 with the numbers increasing YoY by 16 per cent[1], the up-and-coming London Homebuilding & Renovating Show, sponsored by Anglian Home Improvements, is set to attract thousands more visitors at its new spacious and contemporary venue, ExCel, London from 25-27 September. The event this year will celebrate the 25th anniversary of Homebuilding & Renovating magazine, the show's media partner and Britain's best-selling self-build publication, by taking its content off the pages and bringing it to life at the event, supported by new experts, exhibitors, seminars and masterclasses.

To commemorate a quarter of a century of publishing for self-builders at the impressive ExCel exhibition centre, the event will showcase how the property market, architectural and design trends, which have shaped the social aspects of the UK families, have evolved over this time. In addition,

Closing date:

Win an evening at The Pointer

Your chance to win dinner for 4 plus a bottle of champagne

THE Pointer is a real village pub at the centre of the local community where you can eat fantastic, locally sourced food. Wherever possible, produce comes from The Pointer's own farm and estate overseen by Stockman Jamie Brewer and Estates Manager Paul Gough. Produce direct from the farm includes beef from the very best free range English Longhorn cattle which is aged for a minimum of 30 days; and pork from the farm's rare breed Middle White pigs.

Since joining in December 2014, new head chef Mini Patel and his team are delighted to have been awarded two AA Rosettes in The Pointer restaurant. Mini's menus change daily and are founded on carefully sourced produce and simple British classics with creative twists, all cooked and presented beautifully.

Closing date:

Friday, September 11, 2015

Adjacent to The Pointer pub and restaurant is the butcher, run by husband and wife team Jon and Anna Wilkins. Pointer owner, David Howden, and butcher Jon Wilkins have shared a love of food and passion for farming for many years and it finally led them to open the butcher two years ago. Similar to the pub, the butcher is a focal point for Brill's local community, providing up to 160 meals a day for the neighbouring school during term time, attracting families on a weekly basis to purchase their free-range meat, eggs and preserves and providing produce for The Pointer restaurant and pub.

The Pointer restaurant, pub and butchers sit in a prime and beautiful location in Brill, Buckinghamshire, with routes towards Oxford, Bicester and central London. The local train stations are Haddenham and Thame Parkway, only ten minutes by car or Bicester Town, which is 15 minutes away.

Win dinner for four with a bottle of champagne at The Pointer by answering this simple questions:

Puzzles

Sudoku

The objective is to fill a 9×9 grid with digits so that each column, each row, and each of the nine 3×3 sub-grids that compose the grid (also called “boxes”, “blocks”, “regions”, or “sub-squares”) contains all of the digits from 1 to 9. The puzzle setter provides a partially completed grid, which for a well-posed puzzle has a unique solution.

Welcome the light into your home with G2S Groups' new Aluminium Bi-fold Doors.

G2S are proud to be offering their new range of Aluminium Bi-fold doors that are perfect for any season and will add a whole new feel to any home. These doors provide a folding wall of glass that effortlessly joins two spaces together. As well as flooding your room with light, they create an open and modern feel, allowing you to remove the barrier between your home and the outside world. Transform your dining room and enjoy your dinner al fresco, without stepping outside of your home.

Why pick Bi-fold doors over patio doors? The fact that when you open the Bi-fold doors they slide, fold, and stack up neatly leaving you with a wide-open space, virtually the full width of the doorway. Our Bi-fold doors are both warm and secure with energy efficient seals and security locks. All prices include VAT, installation, locks, handles and thresholds.

Bellowhead at the Showground

By James Richings

jamesr@taylornewspapers.co.uk

THIS year's Towersey Festival at Thame's Showground from Friday August 28 to Monday August 31 will see a folk band of 11 musicians boasting over 30 instruments between them.

Stuck in a traffic jam in 2004, friends John Spires and Jon Boden vowed the longer they were stuck, the more friends they would invite to join them on tour.

And Bellowhead was born.

"I never stop being amazed at where we've come from and where we are now," John told the Guardian.

"When I first started playing traditional folk music back in the late '90s, I knew it was something I loved and wanted to do, but back then it was quite unfashionable and right on the fringe of the wider music scene."

He added: "I had no idea that folk would end up shoulder to shoulder with mainstream music."

Performing on Saturday August 29, John and Jon are joined by Benji Kirkpatrick, Rachael McShane, Paul Sartin, Pete Flood, Brendan Kelly, Justin Thurgur, Andy Mellon, Ed Neuhauser and Sam Sweeney.

They have gone on to release five UK chart hitting studio albums, the latest of which, 'Revival', peaked at number 12 in the standings, their highest ever position in the charts.

John added: "We wanted to make an album which somehow acknowledged the recent resurgence of folk music into the mainstream, almost in the way it did way back in the folk revival of the late '60s and early '70s."

"The fact that we released it on the famous Island Label who put out so much great stuff in that era seemed very fitting."

"Also, we always have a lively show!"

"We'll be playing a mixture of tracks from the new album and some old favourites too, so prepare to dance in the isles."

Their third album 'Hedonism', released in 2010, has gone on to sell over 60,000 copies.

The figures make it the highest selling independently released folk album of all time.

Other artists performing at the festival are Joan Armatrading, last year's joint runner up on The Voice Sally Barker, Oxfordshire born musician Nikki Loy and violinist Phil Beer.

Oxford trio aim to deliver acoustic glamour at Joe's

THREE Oxford brothers will take to the stage and showcase their acoustic talent at Joe's Bar & Grill in North Oxford this Sunday.

The Lewis Brothers, consist of Tom on backing vocals, keyboard and saxophone, Rhys on the guitar and as lead vocalist along with their half-brother Harvey on cajon and percussion.

The trio are set to perform hits from the likes of Bob Marley, Whitney Houston and Sting, all the way through to contemporary pop songs by the likes of Rihanna, Bastille and Oasis as they aim to cater their show to all audiences.

However, an original track maybe on the cards this Sunday.

"When we perform as The Lewis Brothers we tend to play just covers," Tom told the Guardian.

"However, Rhys (the lead singer) writes his own music and so we're always ready to play a few originals on request.

"And Rhys' latest song 'Don't Wanna

By James Richings

jamesr@taylornewspapers.co.uk

Believe It" is now available on Soundcloud.

In addition to performing at various venues across the country, the brothers (excluding Rhys) have also got day jobs whilst pursuing their music endeavours.

Tom spends his time working with two volunteer organisations, which are LRTT (Limited Resource Teacher Training) and Hull-based charity Volunteer Uganda and LRTT (Limited Resource Teacher Training).

Whilst, his brother, Harvey, is a qualified music technician who over the last two years has set up his own business called Reulo, which helps small businesses and start-ups with their media and branding.

Rhys is a full-time musician who works as a live performer as part of the Lewis Brothers, as well as performing in London with many other live acts that he's a part of.

Rhys is also embarking on his own solo career whilst composing music for theatre and adverts.

The three brothers are hoping their gig this Sunday will be as good as the last time they visited the Banbury Road venue, which was earlier this summer.

"It's always great to start a gig with some chilled covers whilst people are eating and then ramp it up a bit as the night goes on," Tom said.

"By the end of our last gig at Joe's we had a dozen diners up dancing.

"We're really excited to be back, it should be a good night on Sunday as it's a bank holiday weekend.

He then added: "We enjoy every gig - it's what we all love to do.

"The special gigs are the ones where everyone is immersed in the music, dancing, singing and clearly enjoying themselves.

"When we can see that people are enjoying it and there's a great energy in the room, we always play better."

The gig starts at 7.30pm at the Banbury Road venue and is free when buying a meal.

Cornerstone's new autumn programme

THE Cornerstone Arts Centre in Didcot have announced their brand new autumn line-up which will begin on Thursday, September 17.

Kicking off the new programme will be Samuel Beckett's play, 'Waiting for Godot'.

The production, which was first performed in 1953, focuses on two friends Vladimir and Estragon as the duo learn about the meaning of life and death.

The play is suitable for over 12s.

September will also see comedian and musician Alex Horne arrive at the Station Road venue on Thursday, September 24 with his very eccentric, 'Monsieur Butterfly' tour.

The 36-year old has appeared on a number of television shows which includes, 8 out of 10 Cats Does Countdown.

The month will end with the children's production, 'Rosie's Magic House', which is based on the award-winning book by author Russell Hoban.

October will be the busiest month of the new programme with 20 shows.

Starting the month off will see comedian, presenter and reporter Mark

By James Richings

Thomas visit the Station Road venue, bringing a mixture of theatre, stand up comedy, journalism and activism to the stage on October 2 as he embarks on his, 'Trespass' UK tour.

Fellow comedians such as Jo Brand (October 22) and Dan Clark (October 30) will also be at the Station Road venue during the month with their shows, 'Work in Progress' and 'Me, My Selfie and I'.

November see the arrival of rock and soul group Polly and the Billets Doux, who will be performing on Friday, November 6.

They'll perform tracks off their albums, 'Hold Fast' (2014) and Fiction, Half Truths and Downright Lies (2009).

The penultimate month of the year will also see comedian James Acaster appear in Didcot on November 20.

The 30-year old comic has appeared on TV shows such as, 'Mock the Week', 'Have I Got News For You' and '8 Out

INSIDE OUT

A groundbreaking animated film for all the family from the director of Up, centred on the sparring emotions in the mind of a teenage girl. Growing up can be a bumpy road, and it's no exception for Riley. Like all of us, Riley is guided by her emotions – in her case they are comic characters who live inside her mind, and help guide her through everyday life. A great comic cast includes Amy Poehler, Mindy Kaling and Bill Hader.

Sat, Sept 12, 7.30pm
The Oxford Playhouse, Oxford

NINA CONTI

Queen and put an end to her icy spell.

Thursday, September 17, 1900hrs
The Cornerstone Arts Centre, Didcot

WAITING FOR GODOT

Vladimir and Estragon meet as dusk approaches. Estragon tries to remove his boot. Vladimir examines his hat. A conversation begins, a joke is interrupted. A carrot is eaten. The two men quarrel then embrace. Unannounced, two eccentric travellers arrive. Seemingly master and servant, one stands weighed down at the end of a long rope, the other carries a whip.

Thu, Sept 17, 7.30pm
The Unicorn Theatre, Abingdon

LADY MASIERY

Forged from the voices of Hannah James, Hazel Adew and Rowan Rheingans, Lady Masiery explore vocal harmony to breathtaking effect, through their fresh interpretations of songs and ballads.

What's on in OXFORDSHIRE LISTINGS

EAST IS EAST

Following its sensational West End run, one of the best British comedies takes the nation by storm. Pakistani chhiphop owner George Khan - 'Genghis' to his kids - is determined to give his children a strict Muslim upbringing in 1970s Salford. Household tension reaches breaking point as their long-suffering English mother, Ella, gets caught in the cross fire, her loyalties divided between her marriage and the free will of her children.

Sat, Sept 26, 7.30pm
Cornerstone Arts Centre, Didcot

POCKET MERCHANT

Propeller present a pocket-sized version of Shakespeare's Merchant of Venice. One of Shakespeare's darkest plays will be brought to life using the company's unique, revelatory style. Under the direction of Edward Hall (Waterloo Sunset, Chariots of Fire), Propeller's all-male cast bring Shakespeare's text alive with its invigorating, engaging and often funny approach to the play.

Fri, Oct 2, 8pm
The Mill Arts Centre, Banbury

U2UK
2015 sees Europe's premier tribute band, U2UK, bring their U2 Show to The Mill Arts Centre once again. With an explosive live performance U2UK will take you through four decades of some of the greatest rock anthems ever written and recreating the most captivating moments of the tours which have earned U2 their reputation as 'The World's Greatest Rock Band'. U2UK will transport you to your very own U2 stadium show at The Mill with songs including Beautiful Day, The Miracle of Joey Ramone, Bad, Sunday Bloody Sunday, New Year's Day, Pride, Streets Have No Name, Angel of Harlem, Desire, Mysterious Ways, Vertigo and many, many more!

Friday, October 2, 1800hrs

BLOW

Mack is a man with the perfect life - a successful novelist and married to the woman of his dreams. But Mack is a pathological liar and a looming family visit threatens to crumble his glamorous fantasy into little pieces. Can Mack prevent them finding out about his dead-end career, his inflatable wife and the literal skeleton in his closet?

Blow is a one-man play about sex, death and a compulsive fantasist, written by student Florence Read.

Wed, Oct 21, 7pm
O2 Academy, Oxford

JACK SAVORETTI

Jack Savoretti has firmly established himself as one of the country's finest singer/songwriters with his acclaimed album 'Written In Stars'. After selling out his last tour, including his biggest show to date at O2 Shepherd's Bush Empire, Jack confirms more live dates for the autumn.

Sun, Oct 25, 2pm
Cornerstone Arts Centre, Didcot
DEATH, DUCK AND THE TULIP

Duck, Death and the Tulip is an award-winning performance for small children and their grown-up friends. Using puppets, mime and magic, it tells the story of a heart-warming and whimsical friendship between a playful duck and a character called Death. Together Duck and Death drink tea, go swimming, climb a tree, and keep each other warm. Duck asks lots of questions. Duck learns that Death, as a constant companion, is part of life.

PAUL POTTS

Winner of Britain's Got Talent Season One, Paul found global success with his albums, live shows and tours, impressing audiences worldwide with his powerful yet emotive operatic performances. Six years later, and his feet are yet to touch the ground. Paul has already performed more live shows than any other contestant from a talent search programme, whilst in recognition of Paul's meteoric 'rags to riches' rise to fame, his life story has been turned into a film also entitled One Chance and stars award-winning comedian James Corden. Joining Paul is special guest Catriona Murray, a classical soprano from Nottingham. Discovered earlier this year by Britain's Got Talent winner Jamie Lambert, Catriona has begun work on compiling a solo album and has a string of concerts lined up for the summer season. Paul Potts is once again set to remind audiences of his inspiring charm and rich, mellifluous classical prowess, complemented by Catriona Murray - a new generation of exceptional talent.

McLaren returns to Pebble Beach with one-off 570S

FOUR years on from its global launch, McLaren Special Operations (MSO) will return to the USA's famous Pebble Beach Concours d'Elegance later this month with a selection of distinctive and beautiful commissions.

The bespoke division of McLaren will showcase some of the individualisation options it will make available on the forthcoming new 570S Coupé, the first model to join the McLaren Sports Series.

Two examples have been created.

The first 570S Coupé by MSO features the uniquely formulated Mauvine Blue paint finish coupled with a bespoke interior finished in Carbon Black leather with co-ordinating detailing, carried through from the exterior colour.

A second 570S Coupé, finished in Ventura Orange and fitted with a selection of styling details from the MSO Defined range of options, will take up position on the popular Concept Lawn at the event.

Production of the coupé-only model is strictly limited to 500 examples worldwide all of which have now been assigned

By James Richings

jamesr@ta.com news papers.co.uk to customers.

With a clear focus on lightweight, optimised aerodynamics, increased power, track-focused dynamics and driver engagement, the model re-establishes the 'Longtail' heritage.

This means that the car's top speed is 330km/h (205mph), the 675LT accelerates to 100km/h (62mph) from standstill in 2.9 seconds, and hits 200km/h (124mph) in just 7.9 seconds.

Alongside the model in the Super Series will be the even more exclusive 650S Le Mans.

Created by MSO to celebrate the 20th anniversary of the now legendary victory at the famous French endurance race, the 650S Le Mans is limited to just 50 examples and features design aspects taken from McLaren F1 GTR chassis #01R which took victory two decades ago.

Completing the line up of McLaren models on display during the weekend will be a 1996 McLaren F1 GTR.

Being displayed by McLaren Automotive, on loan from BMW North America who sponsored the car during its debut season, chassis #17R was campaigned by Team Bigazzi and competed at various races through the season including finishing eighth at the 24 Hours of Le Mans.

The Volcano Red example of the limited edition McLaren P1TM is one of just 375 models, and represents the McLaren Ultimate Series at the pinnacle of the three-tier model range.

The 1998 McLaren F1, chassis #073, is in a highly sought-after specification with a number 'LM' upgrades.

CITROËN

NEW CITROËN C4 CACTUS
FROM ONLY £165 - £219 PER MONTH ON PERSONAL LEASE*

According to the critics, different is great, because they voted the New Citroën C4 Cactus hatchback of the year. It's full of clever ideas like the protective side airbumps and instead of the usual cluttered dash, there's a simple 7" touchscreen with built-in reversing camera.<sup>1</sup> We think it looks pretty cool too, but that's just what happens when you do things out of the ordinary.

CRÉATIVE TECHNOLOGIE

CITROËN prefers TOTAL. *Prices & offers apply to retail sales of qualifying models ordered & delivered 01/07/30/09/15 & include VAT, delivery to dealer & number plates, Government Registration Fee & 12 months' graduated vehicle excise duty. Black/metallic/pearlescent paint optional at extra cost. Fleet 4 Personal Lease rentals shown apply to - New C4 Cactus BlueHDi 100 manual. Finance subject to status. Finance provided by and written quotations available on request from PSA Finance UK Limited (company registration number 01024322) t/a Citroën Financial Services, Quadrant House, Princess Way, Redhill, Surrey, RH1 1QA, UK. Citroën Financial Services is authorised and regulated by the Financial Conduct Authority. Over 18s only. A guarantee may be required. Hartwell Automotive Group Ltd is acting as a credit broker and is not a lender. To finance your purchase/lease we may introduce you to a limited number of lenders. Offers & specification correct at time of going to press from participating Dealers. Terms & conditions apply. Please ask us for details. Subject to stock availability. <sup>1</sup>Optional at extra cost on C4 Cactus Feel, available as standard on C4 Cactus Flair. Also includes rear parking sensors.

Official Government fuel consumption figures: Urban cycle, Extra urban, Combined (litres per 100km/mpg) & CO<sub>2</sub> emissions (g/km); New Citroën C4 Cactus BlueHDi 100 manual Fuel 4/70.6, 3.1/91.1, 3.4/83.1, 90. MPG figures are achieved under official EU test conditions, intended as a guide for comparative purposes only, and may not reflect actual on-the-road driving conditions.

CAREER OPPORTUNITY

Head of Service
Oxfordshire Dementia Support Service

Location: Abingdon
Hours: 35 hours per week
Salary: circa £33,000 per annum
Contract: Permanent

We have partnered with YoungDementia UK and Guideposts Trust to create a new service to ensure every person, whatever age, diagnosed with dementia and their family can be supported to live well in the community.

This is an exciting opportunity to develop the new service, in collaboration with our partners, leading and inspiring a team of staff and volunteers, building strong relationships with health and social care colleagues to ensure pathways of care work effectively and, above all, ensuring that the service is responsive to the needs of people living with dementia.

Brave United bow out to Owls in cup defeat

A BATTLING Oxford United could not withstand the pressure of a powerful Sheffield Wednesday side as they fell to a 1-0 defeat at Hillsborough on Tuesday in the Capital One Cup.

United could not repeat the heroics of their 4-0 win at Brentford in the previous round and Atdhe Nuhui's goal for the Championship side proved to be the difference.

Johnny Mullins took the captain's armband for the game and saw his defence tested early on after Wednesday captain Tom Lee planted a dangerous header toward Sam Slocombe's goal after five minutes which the Oxford 'keeper managed to kick away.

Ryan Taylor tried his luck with an effort after eight minutes but United were penned back by Wednesday for the majority of the first half with the home side putting the U's under significant pressure.

Sam Long then had to be stretchered off the pitch after catching his boot in the turf when making a challenge and Liam Sercombe came on, just a few minutes before half time.

The game's feistiness only increased in the second half and suddenly the U's were behind on 55 minutes after Nuhui headed home from close range in a goal-mouth scramble.

Callum O'Dowda sought to find a way into the game for United and nearly found an equaliser when he cut in from the right and curled a shot that just slipped by the far post.

Slocombe had to react brilliantly to fend off an effort from Marco Matias as the Owls looked to hit the U's hard on the break.

Danny Hylton came on for Patrick Hoban with 13 minutes to go and the substitute nearly found a goal after a ball was flicked into his path but he couldn't deflect the ball out of Owls 'keeper Lewis Price's hands.

In the end, the Yellows admitted defeat against the superior side in what was an encouraging display on the night.

Plato holds series lead at Knockhill

JASON Plato endured a turbulent weekend at Knockhill circuit last weekend after he had his advantage as leader of the British Touring Car Championship (BTCC) cut to just eleven points.

The Team BMR driver only qualified twelfth for the weekend's first race, so he added extra ballast in order to aid his qualifying for the second, finishing 23rd overall in the first race.

The seventh meeting of the BTCC this year saw Plato attempt to recover his weekend in the second and third races as he managed to finish the races in seventh and fourth respectively, maintaining his position as series leader.

Plato said after the race: "From where we were in qualifying it was a really good weekend."

"We've really rescued it - I've only lost five points. We're going to three circuits now where there are longer corners - the problem with Knockhill is it just doesn't suit our car."

"It's just the way it is, but this is the only circuit on the calendar with these characteristics, so I'm pleased with the weekend."

Oxfordshire set up final after winning division

OXFORDSHIRE CCC beat Wiltshire CCC by an innings and 183 runs last week over three days to claim the Unicorn Minor Counties Western Division title.

The resounding win over their local rivals sealed the division title for Oxon, which set up a national minor counties final clash with Cumberland CCC who won the Eastern Division.

Oxon beat their rivals over the course of three days from August 16 at Devizes Cricket Club and are due to face Cumberland in a four-day match starting September 6 at Carlisle Cricket Club.

Oxfordshire finished their league campaign on 122 points, taking five wins from a possible six and finishing 13 points clear of their closest challengers, Berkshire CCC.

Oxon knew that only a win would guarantee them the division title but the game tilted Oxon's way after Wiltshire's decision to elect to bat led to the Oxon cricketers dispatching them quickly.

Oxon's Harvey Eltham took 4-13 in just five overs and Chad Keegan scored 8-53 including a first innings five-for.

When it came to Oxon's batting, Hugo Darby stepped up to the plate and knocked 112 runs from 198 balls and Lloyd Sabin knocked an admirable 72 runs from 81 balls.

Four defeats in a row for United

ABINGDON United fell to their fourth consecutive defeat in four league games after Longlevens AFC knocked three past Steve Alman's side on Tuesday at Saw Mills.

A brace from Brad Martin and an effort from Shaun O'Connor gave the home side the win that leaves United bottom of the Hellenic Premier League table.

United have been edging closer to their first points of the season over the last couple of games and were cruelly undone against Tuffley Rovers on Saturday despite Jack Ross' goal in a 2-1 defeat at the Northcourt.

Ross had found space in the seventh minute to control a free kick and head past Rovers' Aaron Taylor into the Rovers goal.

Rovers scored their equaliser through captain Ashley Davies in the second half who latched onto a header from Gareth Davies, and fired home from close range.

The visitors then sealed the win two minutes after through Anthony Herrin, who met a cross to head home at the far post.

United announced on Saturday that they'd added two new faces to this season's squad with ex-Abingdon Town defender Francesco Merola and ex-Thame United keeper, Tom Plumridge joining the club.

Toussaint's U's delight

DESTINEY Toussaint was 'over the moon' to open her account for Oxford United Women in their inspiring 3-2 victory over Watford Ladies in the FA Women's Super League 2 on Sunday at Berkhamsted.

Toussaint scored the winner in a frantic encounter that saw United come back from being two goals down to score two goals within the dying minutes.

Sahara Osborne-Ricketts had headed the U's into a half-time lead before Kim Farrow and Ellie Mason gave Watford the lead with just fifteen minutes left on the clock.

Toussaint said: "For me it was a feeling of relief. It was a ball over the top and everyone threw themselves at it. We knew there were only a few minutes to go and when the referee gave it we were delighted and over the moon."

The new signing believed that the team always knew they could get back into the game and that they 'stuck together' in order to get the result.

She said: "The two goals were disappointing but we stuck together and worked as a team."

United take on Bristol Academy Women tonight.

Fighters conquer the cage in Oxford

• Calum McDonagh (left) took the decision win over Danny Nash

OXFORDSHIRE'S fighting talent was locked in a cage for a night of multi-discipline fighting on Saturday night at the Oxford Sports and Social Club in Roman Way.

Eight fights of mixed martial arts (MMA) and boxing were on offer to the masses gathered in the club in the night dubbed

By Alexander Ballinger
alex@taylornewspapers.co.uk

Oxford Caged Warriors.

The main event of the night's entertainment was a title fight between Hugo Fins from the Oxford Martial Arts Academy and Dave Davey in four three minute rounds of boxing action.

Four rounds proved more than enough time however as Fins came in strong from the bell dominating the fight early.

The win came swiftly with Davey giving in by verbal submission 58 seconds into the first round after a barrage from Fins, who looked confident.

Fins took the Caged Warriors Welterweight belt following the win.

He said: "I was a bit surprised but I've been training hard."

"Usually I'm not a boxer I'm a K-1 fighter. I was about to knee him then I remembered it was boxing."

The mixture of disciplines catered to all tastes with some great fights coming from the MMA fighters.

Callum McDonagh went up against Danny Nash in three rounds of three minutes semi-professional mixed martial arts.

McDonagh dominated the fight from the early stages, controlling Nash with superior wrestling technique.

The battle continued in familiar style for the duration with Nash struggling to recover control as McDonagh kept him pinned to the floor.

After landing some heavy throws McDonagh took an easy decision win at the end of the third.

Mar Cel then beat Tom Enstone in a second semi-pro three rounder in brisk fashion.

Five out of five for superb Millers

NORTH Leigh maintained their one hundred per cent win record with a snatch-and-grab win over title rivals Taunton Town to stay top of the Southern League Division One South & West table.

Both teams were on maximum points and in a close encounter Morgan Williams's goal just after the hour mark proved to be the difference between the two sides.

The Millers were in fine form from the off with Kieran Sanders and Williams linking well as Leigh sought to find the opener.

Taunton got further into the game as it progressed and Town striker Aidan Chainey tested Leigh 'keeper James Foster with a powerful effort on 21 minutes.

Taunton's Ben Carter had a pop from 25 yards with a stunning effort that smashed against the Leigh bar just after half-time.

The effort proved to be the wake-up call Leigh needed and

The Millers found their goal on 63 minutes after Elliot Osborne-Ricketts threaded Williams the ball ten yards from goal and his shot flew into the far corner.

Foster then had to think fast for The Millers as a deflection off the boot of Leigh centre back, Lewis White but Foster was able to catch and smother the ball to remove the danger.

North Leigh held on to the win to move three points clear of their rivals and will now visit Cove FC in the Emirates FA Cup on Monday.

Oxford City beaten despite wonder Coulson strike

OXFORD City fell to a 2-1 defeat at Havant & Waterlooville on Saturday despite Luke Coulson hammering home a superb long-distance shot.

The Hawks nearly went in front early on after Ben Swallow tested City's Craig Hill with a fine effort.

Matt Paterson was also looking lively for the home side and when put through on goal, the forward was unlucky to lose a sprint to the ball with Hill who grabbed hold of the chance.

City's Bradley Bubb was denied a goal after it was ruled out for being offside before The Hawks broke the deadlock through Adrian Clifton tucking home from Swallow's cross before half-time.

Havant came out of the blocks firing in the second half and were looking dangerous as they threatened Hill's goal.

Bubb was looking a constant threat for Oxford as he looked to interlink the play between the midfield and forward line in order to release himself.

Coulson then hit his wonder goal with just eight minutes remaining after Havant failed to close him down and the shot sailed into the net.

Havant then regained the lead after Nic Ciardini's ball was lofted into the area from a corner and Dan Strugnell headed home to seal the win.

Sport Bites

Wantage victorious

FOOTBALL: Wantage Town bagged themselves another three points in the Southern League Division One South & West on Saturday with a 3-1 win over Shortwood United at Alfredian Park.

The Freds found their breakthrough on 35 minutes after an attack led to Ben Whitehead breaking clear and he struck an effort into the corner from 25 yards out.

Shortwood found their equaliser in 45 minutes after a swinging cross from the right was met by Liam Meredith from close range.

The resulting kick-off saw the Freds regain the lead after Whitehead's corner was knocked in at the far post by Stuart Cattell to head home his second of the season.

The Freds then rounded out the scoring with Sam Collier squaring the ball to Whitehead, who lashed home his second of the day from seven yards.

Wantage are set to face off against Didcot Town in a preliminary round of the FA Cup tomorrow at Alfredian Park.

O'Dowda gets Int'l call-up

FOOTBALL: Oxford United's promising winger Callum O'Dowda has been called up to the Republic of Ireland U-21 squad for next month's games.

The Kidlington 20-year-old will be in the squad for the friendly against Qatar on September 4 and their 2017 UEFA U21 Championships qualifier at Andorra on September 8.

The winger will miss United's league game against Bristol Rovers on September 6 as a result of the call-up.

CLASSY DIDDY IN 3-1 VICTORY

DIDCOT Town showed their class as they put AFC Totton to the sword to record their third win of the season in a 3-1 win at Testwood Stadium last Saturday.

An unbeatable screamer from Matty Woodley, an effort from Lance Williams and a first senior goal for Jack Powell sealed the win for The Diddy with Nathaniel Sherborne firing for the home side.

The result was The Diddy's first win in three games and takes them back up the table to seventh on nine points with five games played.

With just three minutes gone, Woodley picked up the ball around thirty yards from goal and he let fly into the top corner leaving Totton 'keeper Steve Mowthorpe with no chance.

Didcot were then handed an opportunity for their second on 18 minutes after Mowthorpe came charging out of his goal to meet Williams who had been played in on goal.

The 'keeper reached the end of his area, attempting to head it clear but the ball fell to Williams who stroked in Didcot's second.

The stags sought to hit back in the game with Sherborne causing a nuisance to the Didcot defence to no avail.

By Loughlan Campbell
loughlan@taylornewspapers.co.uk

Diddy 'keeper Leigh Bedwell was kept busy by the forward and Sherborne came close on the half hour mark with an effort that Bedwell knocked away before Dave Allen's effort smacked the underside of Bedwell's bar.

Williams then managed to get himself in a dangerous position for the Diddy but fired his shot against the crossbar.

Just before half-time, The Stags equalised after Jake Rawkin's run at the defence allowed him to slip in Sherborne to curl the ball in.

Despite Totton knocking on the door, the Diddy managed to put the game to bed, with Powell breaking down the left hand slide and was given space to cut in and fire home Diddy's third, cementing the win.

Joint-manager, Ian Concannon said of Didcot's performance: "It was great to get back to winning ways. We knew that we needed to get a result but we could have been better so far this season."

Didcot will now head to Alfreddian Park to take on Wantage Town in the FA Cup on Friday in what promises to be an exciting local derby.
